The Coast: Norfolk

As on the highway's quiet edge
He mows the grass beside the hedge,
The old man has for company
The distant, grey, salt-smelling sea,
A poppied field, a cow and calf,
The finches on the telegraph.
Across his faded back a hone,
He slowly, slowly scythes alone

In silence of the wind-soft air,
With ladies' bedstraw everywhere,
With whitened corn, and tarry poles,
And far-off gulls like risen souls.

Frances Darwin Cornford

Beach walk

Leave your worries on the shore line,
And run your bare feet through the sand.
Let the water be a soft bed
When you can't bear to stand .

Make friends with flying seagulls
And hold the sun upon your palm.
Before you duck beneath the water
Where the world is mute and calm

Tell the fish all your problems
As they come swimming past,
When your lungs are close to bursting
Swim above the waves and gasp,

Let the water hold your sadness
No wash it right out to sea,
So like a message in a bottle
All your worries are set free.

And the sea might make you feel alone
But the world has troubles too!
For how else do you suppose
The ocean got so blue.
