Guided reading

Read the extract from Anne Frank's diary below

- ▶ July 8th 1942: “At three o'clock (Father had left but was supposed to come back later), the doorbell rang. I didn't hear it, since I was out on the balcony, lazily reading in the sun. A little while later Margot appeared in the kitchen doorway looking very agitated. “Father has received a call-up notice from the SS,” she whispered. “Mother has gone to see Mr. van Daan” (Mr. van Daan is Father's business partner and a good friend.) I was stunned. A call-up: everyone knows what that means. Visions of concentration camps and lonely cells raced through my head. How could we let Father go to such a fate? “Of course he's not going,” declared Margot as we waited for Mother in the living room. “Mother's gone to Mr. van Daan to ask whether we can move to our hiding place tomorrow. The van Daans are going with us. There will be seven of us altogether.” Silence. We couldn't speak. The thought of Father off visiting someone in the Jewish Hospital and completely unaware of what was happening, the long wait for Mother, the heat, the suspense – all this reduced us to silence.”*

* Anne's sister

ISPACE openers

This week, we are going to be revising ISPACE openers - you will remember them from previous years - and using them in our own sentences.

ING words e.g. Giggling, Stamping, Shouting, Examining

We can start sentences with these words

Giggling, Izzy wandered down the street.

Stamping through the water, the toddler clearly loved the puddles.

Shouting loudly, James tried to attract the teacher's attention.

Examining the document carefully, the explorer made his way through the jungle.

You can see that sometimes I added words to the ING word to make it clearer. I also used a comma after the opener.

Diary

A diary needs to include these features:

- ❖ A date
- ❖ An introductory section to 'set the scene'
- ❖ Paragraphs in chronological order
- ❖ Written in the first person - I, we
- ❖ Time sentence openers
- ❖ Events, reactions and opinions about what has happened

Write a diary entry showing how you spent your time yesterday. Remember to bring it into school with you when you return.

Challenge - add ING openers to some of your sentences.

ISPACE openers

Write a sentence for each of these ING words - make them as interesting as possible and punctuate them correctly.

Mumbling, Exploring, Mixing, Jumping,
Staring

Can you add three sentences using your own ING words?
